

JUDGE DUNNE GIVES LIE

WANTS THE STREET SUPERINTENDENT INDICTED AND PUT OUT OF OFFICE To Both the Rabbis

STREETS IN AWFUL SHAPE

Harry Morse Says the Corporations Are Running City. Not Shot Against a Municipal Official Before the Grand Jury This Morning.

Harry N. Morse and H. O. Kiefer, who reside in the vicinity of Newton and Hanover avenues, in East Oakland, appeared before the grand jury this morning and complained of the condition of the streets in East Oakland, declaring that the street department of this city had been negligent in its duties and had not seen that the ordinances of the city were complied with by the public utilities corporations. They want the street superintendent indicted and put out of office. Morse asserts that the streets in East Oakland have been dug up by various companies, but never put back into proper condition.

The Charge. Morse presented the following ex-parte affidavit to the grand jury: "OAKLAND, March 31, 1908. To the Superior Court of the County of Alameda, California: I, Harry N. Morse, do hereby certify that on or about the 1st day of March, 1908, I directed a communication to you calling your attention to the disgraceful condition of the streets at the corner of Newton and Hanover avenues, East Oakland, left so by the Sunset Telephone Company's people. Up to this time you have not deemed to give my complaint any consideration whatsoever. I have no particular desire to get into a controversy with the street department of Oakland for dereliction of duty, but will not hesitate to do so unless you proceed at once to act upon my complaint as required by the city charter. It is a shame and disgrace that such destruction of streets should be permitted, especially in the heart of the city."

FIGHTING BOB EVANS

SPECIAL PROTECTION FOR TAFT WHILE IN CHICAGO 'Red' Troubles Cause Anxiety for His Safety

To this reception all people in Chicago have been invited."

COUNCILMAN EDWIN MEESE CALLS DR. PARDEE A LIAR AND A BULLY

Ex-Governor Shakes His Finger in the Faces of the Councilmen, but Is Soon Called Down by the Officials---Blows Avoided at the Council Meeting.

"DR. PARDEE, I DON'T LIKE THE WAY YOU ARE TALKING AND ACTING, EITHER. YOU NEEDN'T THINK YOU CAN BULLY THE MEMBERS OF THIS COUNCIL BY BAWLING OUT AND TRYING TO MAKE FOOLS OF US WITH YOUR FLOWERY FLOW OF LANGUAGE."—STATEMENT OF COUNCILMAN MEESE.

"A doctor knows no more about moving garbage than a bootblack!" This statement, made by President Albert H. Elliot at a meeting of the City Council last night, precipitated a row involving Dr. John D. Long, United States public health and marine hospital service, in charge of the plague fight in Oakland, Dr. George C. Pardee, Dr. Edward N. Ewer, president of the Board of Health; Dr. E. F. Jackson, a member of the City Council.

During the trouble charges and counter-charges were hurled back and forth in bitter anger, and the opinions which the men concerned expressed of each other in public, at first veiled in innuendo and insinuations, became strikingly open.

Fight Opens. Elliot's remark, which acted on a large number of doctors present with the same effect that a red rag has on a mad bull, followed a heated discussion regarding Dr. Long's proper province.

Every member of the council announced his opinion to the effect that Dr. Long had exceeded his authority and had gone out of the regular sphere of a physician's activities. Every man in the council chamber had his ideas on the subject, and every man there got angry, and they were all worked up when the meeting adjourned. From surface indications it appeared that so many personalities had been exchanged that the men engaged became bitter enemies.

A MON CHATEAU OWNERS MUST ALL STAND TRIAL

CAR AWAITS "FIGHTING BOB"

San Diego Expected to Greet Him Today, but He Is Now on the Battleship Connecticut.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 31.—The Navy Department today received a wireless message from Admiral Evans stating that the battleship Connecticut left Magdalena Bay yesterday and was due to arrive at San Diego tomorrow night. Admiral Evans is coming north, as previously announced, to receive treatment at the mineral hot springs near San Luis Obispo.

The Connecticut will return to Magdalena Bay and later come north with the fleet.

SAN DIEGO, March 31.—Awaiting the arrival of Admiral Evans from Magdalena Bay the special private car "Sacramento" is on a siding at the Santa Fe wharf. The car arrived this morning from Los Angeles and the instructions to the Santa Fe officials were for the car to be ready for the Admiral on Wednesday. The Admiral is understood to be suffering from rheumatic gout and the car will take him to Paso Robles mud baths in San Luis Obispo county to see if some of it can be boiled out of him.

NO word has yet come from Magdalena Bay direct, but the tender Yankton is believed to be approaching the harbor, presumably with the Admiral on board.

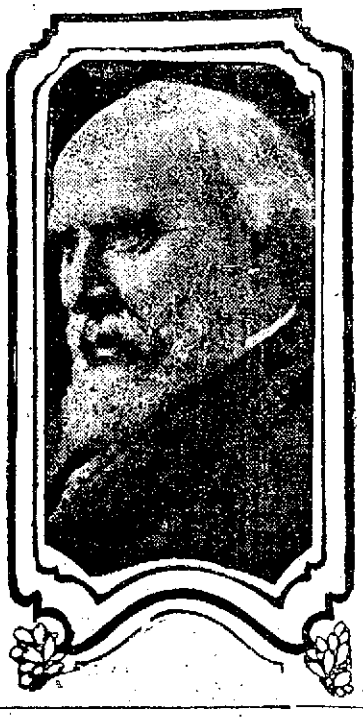

The tug Navajo left yesterday with her cargo of letters and papers and magazines for the fleet and the Yankton is to be the next mail boat.

SAN DIEGO, March 31.—Admiral Evans did not come with the Yankton. Former information a mistake at Quantico.

J. J. HILL Is Not Optimistic on Business Conditions.

NEW YORK, March 31.—Discussing business conditions, James J. Hill, just arrived in this city from Washington, expresses himself as unable to predict an early revival of business.

"While I cannot permit myself to be too optimistic," he said, "I am trying not to be pessimistic. The general recovery in business which has been predicted has not yet manifested itself to any remarkable degree and it is not to be expected that it should. The prevailing conditions were not brought about overnight; they are results of events of many months; and a revival will no doubt be correspondingly gradual."

RUEF'S LAWYERS APPLY FOR WRIT OF MANDATE

Also Accuse Dooling of Prejudice

(Special to The Tribune.) SAN FRANCISCO, March 31.—Very little progress was made this morning in connection with the efforts of the defense to disqualify Judge Maurice R. Dooling from sitting in the trial of the case of Abraham Ruef in connection with the alleged Parkside bribery. However, it is probable that it will be some time before the case actually comes to trial, even in the event that Dooling is not disqualified, for attorneys Ach and Murphy have this morning submitted motions and propositions in three separate courts which are destined materially to delay the progress of the case.

In the District Court of Appeal, Ruef's attorneys late this morning made an application for a writ of mandate to compel Judges Dunne and Dooling, who have been sitting, respectively, in department 6 of the Superior Court, to transfer the case of Abraham Ruef to another department. This writ is asked for on the basis of Ruef's affidavit disqualifying Judge Dunne.

In the same court a writ of prohibition has been also applied for to restrain Judges Dunne and Dooling from trying Ruef on the said cause because the court has lost jurisdiction in the case, he having been legally disqualified from sitting, because of his alleged bias and prejudice against the defendant.

Dooling Prejudiced, He Says. In presiding Judge Sturtevant's court.

John Mitchell Wants to See That Everybody Is Paid at Once

John Mitchell, chairman of the Board of Supervisors is to hold a conference with District Attorney Brown, relative to the county funds. Mitchell called at the District Attorney's office this morning, but as Brown was interested in the trial of a damages suit, the conference was not held this morning. It will be arranged so, however, as Mitchell declares that he is anxious to see everybody who is owed by the county get their money.

DENIES THE STORY THEY TOLD

About the Immunity Contract With Abe Ruef.

Files an Affidavit Telling of Famous Midnight Meeting When Ruef Was Under Discussion.

(Special to The Tribune.)

SAN FRANCISCO, March 31.—The long expected affidavit of Superior Judge Frank H. Dunne, which deals with the incidents in connection with the Ruef immunity contract and the promise that the former boss would be allowed to change his plea of guilty in an indictment $25, better known as the French restaurant case, was filed this morning in Judge Lawlor's court.

The affidavit denies the statements made by Drs. Nieto and Kaplan regarding the midnight conference, and indirectly accuses the two rabbis of perjury. Dunne absolutely denies that he ever promised to allow Ruef to change his plea, or indeed that Ruef's name was even mentioned at the famous midnight session.

Dunne begins by stating that on the 29th of April, 1907, between 11 and 12 p. m., he returned to his home and found Burns waiting. The detective stated that H. H. H. wanted to see him at once, and asked him to go to his chambers in the Temple Israel. He says he remonstrated and said he would wait until the next morning, but Burns was insistent, saying that H. H. H. and Dr. Nieto were waiting and that the city manager was to leave the next day for Europe. The jurist declares that H. H. H. and Dr. Nieto were the only two persons mentioned.

Met the Rabbis. When he arrived at the Temple Israel he says he met Drs. Nieto and Kaplan with H. H. H. at the door. The latter stated that he had brought him there for him to explain his practice to the rabbis. He replied:

"I have confidence in you, Mr. H. H. H. and in the district attorney, and while I have confidence in the district attorney, whenever a recommendation or suggestion is made by him in a case pending in my department, it is my practice to entertain and be guided by it, provided, of course, it is in the interest of furtherance of justice."

Thereupon, he says, Dr. Kaplan remarked: "Every man of honor, suppose a man pleads guilty and afterwards asks to change his plea?"

Judge Dunne replied, he says: "You have heard what I have said, gentlemen, as to my practice. Of course, in all cases of such recommendations, and which I insist shall always be made in open court, whenever the district attorney fails to convince me that he is well advised, or that good and sufficient grounds exist for his motion, it must be denied. I maintain that the final determination must always rest with me, but of course I would give great weight to any recommendation with you, Mr. H. H. H. or Mr. Langdon might make."

Quotes Nieto Affidavit. Judge Dunne continued by saying that the above conversation took only two or three minutes and that he went directly home. He maintains that the name of Ruef or any other defendant was not

HILL'S NAME SENT TO SENATE

President Nominates Him to Post at Berlin in Spite of the Late Unpleasantness.

WASHINGTON, March 31. — The President today sent to the Senate the nomination of David Jayne Hill to be ambassador extraordinary and plenipotentiary to Germany. He also named Arthur B. Beaupre, of Illinois, to be minister to The Netherlands and Luxembourg and Spencer F. Eddy, of Illinois, who is the husband of the former Miss Lurline Spreckels of San Francisco, to be minister to the Argentine Republic.

BERLIN, March 31. — The advice received at the foreign office from Washington indicates that in the American capital as well as in Berlin, the Hill episode is regarded as having been happily adjusted.

The best diplomatic opinion that if Mr. Hill chooses to come to Berlin, he will find his position not only agreeable but more important than would have been the case if the incident had not happened. Charles Magne Tower, the retiring American ambassador in fulfillment of his letter to President Roosevelt last September in which he said that he would ask leave to resign early next summer, has now fixed the date at June 1, and he has so informed the President. Mr. Tower gave legal notice to the owner of his residence here that he would give up his house the first of May and it has been advertised for rent. The occupancy of this building is now under discussion as suitable for the Japanese embassy and if found to be desirable, it will be purchased by Japan.

SWALLOWS A NAIL; GOES TO HOSPITAL; COUGHS IT UP AGAIN

A. Shaw swallowed a nail yesterday afternoon while lathing a house at Perkins and Grant street and when taken to the Receiving Hospital he coughed it up almost as easily as he went down. Shaw, who is twenty-four years of age and who lives at 433 Sherman street, is employed by "Big Jim" Gallagher and his partner, McQuade. He had his mouth full of nails yesterday afternoon when one of them slipped down his throat and stuck there. He was hurried to the Receiving Hospital and when Assistant Steward Travers proceeded to remove the offending nail with a pair of forceps, Shaw coughed twice and up came the nail, a feat which is novel in the annals of the hospital.

GRANT HALLIDAY WANTS TO GO TO THE REPUBLICAN CONVENTION

GRANT G. HALLIDAY, COUNTY CLERK OF SOLANO COUNTY.

VALLEJO, March 31.—Grant G. Halliday, county clerk of Solano county, has announced himself as a candidate for delegate to the National Republican Convention from the Third Congressional district, which includes Alameda, Solano and Contra Costa counties.

Mr. Halliday is serving his fourteenth year as county clerk of this county. At two elections he was chosen for the position he now holds without opposition. Always a straight Republican, courteous and obliging, he started in politics as assistant postmaster in the Vallejo office, where he was brought in contact with the public and became well liked.

He is a Mason, an Odd Fellow, a Native Son and an Elk. Recently he was elected to represent the Vallejo Parlor of Native Sons at the Grand Parlor meeting to be held in the Yosemite Valley. He is known as one of the most popular men in this county.

TURNED OVER TO HIGHER COURT ON BIGAMY CHARGE

George McCune Refuses to Testify in Own Behalf—Hazel McCune Weeps on the Stand.

With tears in her eyes and heartfelt sobs, 18-year-old Hazel Ruby Lewis of 5899 San Pablo avenue this morning gave testimony in the police court which resulted in George Raymond McCune, whom she married in this city on March 11, 1907, being held for trial to the Superior Court on a charge of bigamy in $2500 bonds, he having been a married man at the time he took Miss Lewis to the altar. His legal wife, formerly Clara May Sullivan of St. Louis, daughter of Postoffice Inspector William T. Sullivan, was in court with her father, both giving testimony to McCune's marriage with Miss Sullivan. McCune refused to take the stand in his own behalf and Judge Smith at once held him for trial.

Testify to Former Marriage.

According to the testimony offered and proved by documentary evidence, McCune and Miss Sullivan were married in St. Louis on June 8, 1906, by the Rev. George R. Reese, pastor of the Evangelical Lutheran Church. McCune then made his way to Oakland where he represented himself as a man of means and single. He wooed and won Hazel Lewis, then a student at the Polytechnic High School. He and Miss Lewis were married on March 11, 1907, by the Rev. J. W. Norris, then pastor of the Golden Gate M. E. Church, the ceremony being performed at the home of the minister in the presence of the bride's sister, Myrtle Lewis, and some girl friends. Miss Lewis learned of the deception practiced upon her by finding letters from McCune's first wife. When McCune learned that the true state of affairs was known by Miss Lewis he fled the State.

Goes to St. Louis.

McCune went directly to St. Louis, made his second marriage to his first wife and was arrested later before testifying as Hazel McCune wept bitterly. She insisted that she would at once take steps to secure the release of McCune on bonds, said she was bound to get the best legal talent obtainable to defend the man who deceived her and otherwise showed that her affection for McCune has not been lessened despite the predicament in which McCune finds himself.

"I went with McCune to the County Clerk's office to get our marriage license," said Miss Lewis on the witness stand this morning. "I was put seventeen years of age then and was marrying McCune against the wishes of my mother. I uttered an oath when I told the marriage license clerk that I was eighteen years of age."

MRS. CAMPBELL AND HER ACT

Gives the Most Artistic Mrs. Tanqueray Ever Seen in This City.

Mrs. Patrick Campbell opened her Oakland engagement at the Macdonough theater presenting "The Second Mrs. Tanqueray." The audience was a fashionable one but not so large as the fame of Mrs. Campbell and her splendid acting and company deserve. This is a matter for genuine criticism. Mrs. Campbell received a rousing reception which both she and her company seemed to fully appreciate.

"The Second Mrs. Tanqueray" is not as popular a play as might have been selected for its has been done to death in Oakland, yet it is one of the best in the repertoire of the English actress and she lost nothing in the comparison with the other renderings seen this season.

Mrs. Campbell's version of Pinero's heroine is that of a womanly woman acting under the strain of a jealous nature, a jealousy the result of respectation. She did the part humanely and left it free from the overacting which usually mars the conception of the author. She acts with a reserve which appeals to the audience and it is there her act is pre-eminent.

"The Second Mrs. Tanqueray" begins naturally and only reaches an exaggeration in the end as the plot about a unique plot. It is true to life but not to be considered as a healthy play or teaching a lesson. Its philosophy is tawdry in parts and superbly cynical in others.

Mrs. Campbell brings more out of the title role than any of the others who have essayed it in Oakland. It is pure art. A perfect production. She is a true artist—open to only one criticism, the coldness which is apparent but which it is understood is the completeness of the English character she represents.

Ben Webster as Tanqueray, is a clean cut representation of the character around which the play revolves.

The author parts are minor in importance and it would perhaps be wrong to criticize the support from their work in the play.

On the whole the play is perfectly staged and in details as artistic and artistic production as Oakland has seen this season.

Mrs. Tanqueray will be presented at the Wednesday matinee. "The Notorious Mrs. Danvers" on Wednesday night "Hedda Gabler" and on Thursday night "Magda." Large houses will greet this famous actress at every performance.

"BREWSTER'S MILLIONS." Described as the most original comedy presented in a decade, and which has crowded the theaters of Chicago, New York and London for many months past, will be presented at the Macdonough Theater Friday, Saturday and Sunday. The stage adaptation of George Barr McCutcheon's novel has been cleverly made by Winchell Smith and Byron Ongley.

It teems with humorous situations, delightfully toned with a delicate sense of pathos and a fascinating heart interest. The story is one of life and action and there is not a dull moment in it. Its keynote is the effort of a pathetic very sedate young man to spend a million dollars in one year, inherited from a grandfather, as a condition to the inheritance of seven millions from an uncle.

Montgomery Brewster finds this a great task, and to accomplish it he comes a stockbroker, a theatrical "angel," a devotee of the ponies, an adventurer, at Monte Carlo and a world-voyager, and finds how very difficult it is to lose money when one wants to.

Messrs. Cohan & Harris have given the piece a magnificent production and from a scenic standpoint it has never been excelled, the scene in the third act showing a yacht at sea during a storm invariably proving a climax both exciting and realistic.

THE BELL

There is a musical act at the Bell Theater this week—that is a rare treat. It is furnished by four nice looking young men who call themselves the four Brown brothers, and by Doc Kealey. All of them are musicians and Doc Kealey is quite a bit of a comedian. They open their act with a blare of trumpets, which all goes to show they intend to do something, and then they proceed to do it. They succeed at everything they undertake, from playing on queer and peculiar instruments to the ever-difficult saxophone, and out of all they secure sweet and loud-applause music. They claim to have the largest saxophone in the world and it looks big enough to be all that is said for it. It toots loud enough and strong enough to speak for itself. The act is good, unusually so, because there is something doing every second. The audience is not kept waiting while clap-hard-and-ill-come-back stunts are being pulled off, but these fellows keep the entertainment up the time. They are deserving of all the good things that can be heaped into this one paragraph.

There are other acts at the Bell that need not be overlooked. Mr. and Mrs. Dan Mann present a quaint little sketch that contains some comedy and more pathos, and it is very humanly entertaining. It is one of these sketches where the curtain goes down real quietly and you applaud real loudly because an old man has betried a young girl, and the old man quietly lights a corn-cob pipe while you wear your hands out.

DeWitt Young gives a clever juggler act. He uses everything, from iron heds to boomerangs, and with the assistance of his sister, who is chic and pretty, gives an entertaining act. Win Douglas and the two Moscrop sisters offer a pleasing singing and dancing act. It is high class and elegantly costumed. Ed B. and Rolia White give a comedy boxing bout and Catalina and Bravo sing in excellent voice and accompany themselves on a mandolin and guitar.

And last, but not least, there are two reels of motion pictures. One is entitled "The Baby Show" and consists of a series of baby pictures that will make many a mother say, "Just like mine," and the unmarried woman to murmur, "how cute."

THE COLUMBIA

The showing made by the Columbia Stock Company last night in Captain Swift "the Bushranger" was of high class order and the audience that watched its production thoroughly enjoyed it. Erwin Blunkall was seen for the first time in the role of Mr. Wilding, the adventurer and won his hearers without effort. He will no doubt be heard from later. He can't help but win a big following.

Max Steine as usual captured the sympathies and applause of the audience. Mabel Nevers, cousin of Isabelle Fletcher of the Liberty Stock Company, made her debut in the role of Mabel Seabrook. She is winsome, comely and shows possibilities.

The slinging of Master Alfred Neuberger between acts was a revelation. He has a sweet voice, of high range and beautiful tone. Time and again he was called upon for encores.

The play as a whole was well staged. Next week the company will be seen in the "Light House Robbery."

AT IDORA PARK

Large Audience Greeted "Wizard of Nile" Last Night.

There was a large and an enthusiastic audience in the Idora Park opera house last night for the opening performance of the beautiful opera, "The Wizard of the Nile." The enthusiasm was manifested in ovations to favorite members of the company and in general and hearty approval of the production.

"The Wizard of the Nile" is not new to many of us, but on the other hand it will never grow old for us. Those who have previously heard its delightful melodies and laughed over its many ludicrous situations will gladly welcome a repetition of the treat; those who have not will enjoy them with the added charm of novelty thrown about them.

The opera is a masterpiece in the light musical line. Its score is a succession of catchy songs and the finest and richest harmonies; its story has an interest of its own, for the plot is developed logically and the funny complications are cleverly brought in.

Briefly, Kibosh, a traveling Persian magician, happens in Egypt at the time of a drought. He is about to be beheaded when he informs the king and queen that he can bring his magic power to bear and cause the Nile to overflow. His life is spared and he is with the Pharaoh Cleopatra in marriage. Then he makes the Nile sweep over its banks. The result is a disastrous deluge and Kibosh loses royal favor. Again he is to be beheaded. He has two powerful enemies, Pharrigan, Cleopatra's music teacher, who is in love with the princess, and Cheops, the Egyptian weather prophet, whom he displaced. These two conspire against him. Finally it is found that the overflow has enriched the Sahara desert and caused a real estate boom in that section. The king and queen have invested in land they again take old Kibosh into their confidence.

This is a mere skeleton of the story. As Kibosh, Ferris Hartman keeps the audience in a roar of laughter all the time he is on the stage. It is one of the funniest things he has ever done. Sybil Page was back again after an absence of several weeks necessitated by her having broken her ankle. She sang very sweetly. She was accorded an ovation when she stepped before the footlights.

The heartiest applause of the evening seemed to go to Tom Perse, the tenor, who appeared in the role of Cleopatra's music teacher and Kibosh's rival. Perse sang splendidly and acted with fine finish.

Bernice Holmes was back again also. She made an imperious queen. The character was just the kind for her and she portrayed it most acceptably.

As the king, Joe Fogarty was one of the best in the cast. He played and sang the part strongly and consistently throughout. As Cheops, Walter DeLeon was at his best. He made an excellent second comedian and ably assisted Hartman.

Ann Tasker had the soubrette role, that of Kibosh's apprentice. She was as pretty and sweet and sang as delightfully as when she appeared in the prima donna roles during the absence of Miss Page. She is certainly to be reckoned with on the operatic stage.

The chorus work was spirited all the time. The girls were particularly attractive. They were handsomely costumed. Indeed, both costumes and scenery were beautiful, and under the leadership of Conductor Paul Steadford the music was interpreted with all its artistic charm. "The Wizard of the Nile" will draw large audiences while it runs. It will be missed with many regrets.

HIGH SCHOOL GIRL AND FRESHMAN SECRETLY WED

MRS. ELLIS DE GOLIA (MISS EDITH COFFIN.)

—Scharz Photo

Edith Coffin and Ellis de Golia Marry

The secret wedding last November at the Phi Delta Theta fraternity house of Miss Edith Coffin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Coffin, to Ellis de Golia, the son of Mr. and Mrs. George de Golia, is news which is causing a sensation among the friends of the two well known families. At the time of the wedding Miss Coffin was in the Oakland High School and Ellis de Golia was a freshman in the University of California.

The young couple were engaged for several months but an early marriage was opposed since the charming little bride-elect could only claim nineteen years and the prospective groom twenty-two as his age. They were advised to delay the wedding, but in November the pair slipped away quietly to San Rafael and the romantic ceremony was performed. Mr. de Golia returned to his home in Berkeley and continued his college work, while the bride went to her home in Linda Vista. No one suspected their secret until they decided to make the announcement and start life together.

The young groom secured a position in the paper mills of Oregon City with William Pierce Johnson, a family friend at the head of the concern.

When the news was told to the respective parents blessings were in order and the couple leave for their new home in the north under the most favorable auspices.

Mrs. de Golia is the sister of Mrs. Aldrich Barton and Miss Gladys Coffin is a sister-in-law of Mrs. Challen Parker, formerly Miss Noell de Golia. The families are among the most prominent in the city.

COUNCILMAN MEESE CALLS DR. PARDEE A LIAR

Many Complaints.

Councilman Ellisworth said: "I have received hundreds of complaints from my constituents, and I know that dozens of these sanitary inspectors and alleged rat-catchers, who are fattening off the tax-payers by the gross, are wasting the Board of Health's money in the afternoon by gathering in the streets, where they grieve."

Councilman Burns, Elliott and Dr. Jackson said that they, too, had received numerous complaints to the same effect. "The health department certainly should put a stop to this outrage," said Dr. Jackson, from the chair.

"The drunken carousals of these men have become a public scandal, and the health department is responsible."

Dr. Long said: "I have received many such reports. I have asked the citizens who made them to give me the names of the men, or their numbers, but they always refuse to do so. I find it impossible to get co-operation in this matter. I am having great trouble over this business."

"I have discharged many men recently because of such things. If you councilmen will tell me the names of the offenders that you know without, I will promptly discharge them."

Councilman B. H. Pendleton read clipping papers, which quoted a statement purporting to be signed officially by Dr. Rupert Blue, in which that officer stated officially that the danger of a bubonic plague epidemic in San Francisco the coming summer is very remote."

After Dr. Long.

Pendleton said: "I want to know, Dr. Long, why it is, that if Dr. Blue has given a clear bill of health to San Francisco, Oakland is not also given a clean bill of health? Oakland is certainly far more entitled to a clean bill of health than San Francisco, because there have been cases of human plague in San Francisco long after there were in Oakland."

Dr. Pardee said: "Dr. Long has informed me that Dr. Blue told him that he (Blue) had not given a clean bill of health to San Francisco, and that any statement to that effect is a lie, pure and simple."

"This city council is deliberately and maliciously obstructing the Board of Health and is opposing Dr. Long."

"He came here with the absolute guarantee that the administration would aid him in every way possible, and this council promises to stand by him and take his advice on everything pertaining to suppression of the plague."

Pardee Attacks Pendleton.

Here Dr. Pardee walked from the front of the chamber directly to Councilman Pendleton's desk, and standing over Pendleton, who was seated, Dr. Pardee shook his finger in Pendleton's face and shouted angrily:

"And if, in the future, there is plague in this city, I charge that this council will be alone responsible for every death. The lives of the innocent plague victims will be on your hands. This is no time to haggle over pennies, when human life hangs in the balance!"

Dr. Pardee's threatening manner toward Pendleton aroused the whole council, and pandemonium reigned for several minutes, during which Dr. Jackson pounded for order in vain. The hammer of the gavel could hardly be heard over the tumult of voices.

Elliot Talks.

President Elliott held the floor when silence and peace were restored. He said: "We admit that it is all right or Dr. Long to give us medical advice, but he is going outside of the scope of his own profession. It is his duty to tell us whether or not there be plague, either rats or human beings, in Oakland, how a fight the plague, what measures are necessary, and how many men he needs to do the work."

"But his say ends there. He has no right to butt in here tonight and dictate to us how much money we shall spend. We are the elected representatives of the people, and we are under duty bound to protect the treasury."

"This appropriation of $19,000 to fight plague when there is no plague, and Dr. Long can't cite us a single instance of human plague, is a rank robbery of the people."

"We refuse to bankrupt this city at Dr. Long's behest or at any other doctor's word."

"Army and navy officers don't know the value of money. They'll spend money like water. If given a chance, I've been in the navy, and I ought to know."

"We are running to seed over this fake plague business. There isn't any plague, and I don't think there is the slightest danger of plague."

"I think $1000, instead of $19,000, per month, is plenty."

"I see no reason why an army surgeon should control a body of political appointees of the people of Oakland. Dr. Long thinks he can boss us around like a lot of pirates, just because he is an army officer."

PIONEER BREWER IS LAID TO REST

THE LATE WM. A. SMITH

Funeral of the Late W. A. Smith Held Today From Son's Residence.

The funeral of William A. Smith, a pioneer who came to California over the plains in 1844 and who had attained his eighty-second year, took place this afternoon from the residence of his son, W. D. Smith, at 1233 Grove street. The remains were interred in the cemetery.

The obsequies were attended by a number of persons who had long known and esteemed the deceased because during the many years in which Mr. Smith had lived and moved in this vicinity he bore a name which was a synonym for honesty in private and commercial life.

The career of Mr. Smith was one of activity and energy which had borne good results for the reason that for nearly forty years he had been in the enjoyment of his ease and comfort of a retired man of business.

W. A. Smith was born in New York in 1822. He came of a family which in England had for generations been the builders and conductors of successful breweries. His father's business was continued by him and he was successful in it.

Up to the time of the fire Mr. Smith and his wife resided in San Francisco. Both then came to reside here. Mrs. Smith, however, died about fourteen months ago from injuries sustained at the time of the disaster. Since her death Mr. Smith failed in spirit because of bereavement, although physically he was innocent of ailment.

The pallbearers were Richard Hanlon, Claudius Steinberg and four grandsons of the deceased, viz: Guy Smith, Wm. Smith, Milton Smith and Paul Smith, all sons of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Smith of this city. The services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Simonds of the First Unitarian Church.

OILING UP THE BIG STICK TO DEAL WITH VENEZUELA

Senate Committee Decides to Act

WASHINGTON, March 31.—Some of the members of the senate committee on foreign relations have decided to recommend that the committee in view of the Venezuelan refusal to arbitrate pending American claims report to the senate resolutions providing for retaliation either by a prohibitive tariff on coffee or by exclusion of Venezuelan asphalt or authorization to the president to deal with Venezuela as he desires. The committee will meet tomorrow.

The President today sent to the Senate the Venezuelan correspondence called for by the Lodge resolution. This correspondence covers the history of the five American claims which the government has so far in vain sought to have President Castro agree to arbitrate. They are the Jaural claim, the Orinoco corporation claim, the Orinoco Steamship Company claim, the United States and Venezuelan Company (commonly known as the Critchfield) claim and the New York and Bermudez Asphalt Company claim.

In explanation of the latter the famous "Calhoun" report is the first time made public. This does not absolve the asphalt company from blame in including the Matos rebellion against President Castro.

Strong language is used by the solicitor of the State Department in urging a vigorous prosecution of all these claims and he holds that all time has come for language stronger than that employed in a request, and if the demand be met with procrastination or refusal the dignity of this government would seem to require prompt and vigorous action. He also quotes Secretary Fish as saying: "It is useless to attempt to exhaust justice in a country where there is no justice to exhaust."

The solicitor's presentation abounds in other vigorous expressions. No suggestion or recommendation is made by either President Roosevelt or Secretary Root in transmitting the correspondence to the Senate.

The two subjects that are occupying the attention of the platform makers are the tariff and liquor legislation in the form of a referendum to raise the country out of war and township as the unit. There is sentiment in favor of a tariff commission but the stronger feeling seems to be in favor of an immediate revision of the tariff by an extra session of the legislature called immediately after the fall elections.

Shaw alleges in his complaint that the sparkler is valued at $80 and he also seeks for $90 damages sustained he says by being kept from possession of the ring.

The breaking of the engagement of Miss Cameron and Fred Shaw was the young woman had prepared her trousseau and tickets even had been purchased for a trip through the south after the ceremony when Shaw's mother announced that the event would not take place.

Mrs. Shaw gave no reason except in a general way she said her son's health was poor. Shaw left the matter in his mother's hands and was content to abide by her decision. Since then he has made several attempts to recover the ring the first of these occurring two weeks ago and meeting with refusal.

Miss Cameron says of the suit: "If he thinks he will get the ring back he is much mistaken. It is my ring and I propose to keep it. It seems rather remarkable to think that after four years he should institute legal proceedings. It is my ring now and he was responsible for losing it as he did. He sin my can't have it under any circumstances."

30,000 PENNSYLVANIAN MINERS WILL STRIKE

To Remain Out Until Wage Scale Agreement Is Reached.

PITTSBURGH March 31.—At a meeting of the miners and operators this afternoon it was decided that all mines in the Pittsburgh district would suspend operations at midnight tonight until a wage scale agreement has been reached. About 30,000 miners throughout western Pennsylvania are affected.

A request from the new miners' president Lewis that the Pittsburgh district miners support a conference to raise the interstate agreement is considered inadvisable to renew the interstate agreement this year.

FERRE HAUTE Ind. March 31.—It was agreed today by the joint conference of Indiana miners and operators that present wages shall continue after today pending a settlement of a scale. This means there will be no suspension in this State.

PRISONER STEALS ICE PICK FROM MATRON

The discovery that an ice pick had been stolen from Matron White of the county jail and hidden in a closet by one of the prisoners has led to the belief that one of the inmates contemplated doing bodily harm to either himself or to one of the jail officials. The pick which is an ugly weapon eight inches in length has two long prongs and if a person should have been struck with it it would probably have meant death or serious injury.

Matron White left a closet where the pick is kept open during a short absence and one of the prisoners entered and stole the pick. Mrs. White found that the pick was missing and had several of the cells searched. The pick was finally found concealed in a closet. Sheriff Barnett is now investigating the matter.

IS CANDIDATE FOR THE LEGISLATURE

Joseph L. Coughlin, Native Son, Wants to Represent 49th District.

Joseph L. Coughlin is a candidate on the Republican ticket for the nomination for assemblyman in the Forty-ninth assembly district to succeed the late John J. Burke who died while the last legislature was in session.

It is customary in cases of death under those circumstances for a successor to be appointed before the expiration of the session but in this instance, there was an exception to the rule.

Previous to the opening of the last campaign it had been Mr. Burke's purpose to run for the Senate. At that time Mr. Coughlin had been asked for the nomination for the Assembly in place of Mr. Burke who had already served one term in the Assembly. But there was a change in the program so far as Mr. Burke's candidacy for the upper house is concerned and he fell back on his old position in the lower house. Mr. Coughlin opposed no obstacle and heartily aided Burke in securing his nomination and re-election. Mr. Coughlin

FIRE ESCAPES

As Aids to ELOPEMENTS

ST. LOUIS, March 31.—Because she feared the girls would elope, the woman director had no fire escapes on the building of Forest Park University.

Complaints had been made, but recently, when an early morning fire broke out, the young women marched to the lawn unhurt.

The four-story building was located in the center of a seven-acre plot of ground immediately south of Forest Park, in the western limits of the city. At 11:50 o'clock fire was discovered. Instantly all those in the building fled out of the various exits and all escaped in safety to the lawn.

There was no time for the saving of belongings of the young woman students and they lost everything.

As Kirkwood Seminary the institution was founded in the suburban village of Kirkwood in 1861.

In 1891 it was incorporated and removed to St. Louis as Forest Park University.

WOMEN Begin Active Work for SOCIALISM

Following up his determination to preach Christian socialism in spite of any interference on the part of parishioners, the Rev. Dr. John J. Long, pastor of the Parkside Presbyterian Church of Brooklyn, is still further emphasizing his belief in the movement by instituting a series of meetings, announced after the forum conference yesterday, to be led by women of the congregation, which are in the nature of a socialist revival.

One of the interesting features of Dr. Long's adoption of the Christian Socialist doctrine and preaching it from his pulpit is that large numbers of women, as well as men, are rallying to the force from all over the borough.

ough. It isn't only from his own parish, but from all denominations that they are flocking to hear preached the socialism of Christ.

Dr. Long says that if Christ were on earth today He would be a Socialist, for He was the perfect exponent of the doctrine, coupled with Christianity, when He lived.

Not only have business and professional women gone into the new movement, but society and clubwomen, school teachers, ministers' wives and doctors have suddenly discovered that for years, without realizing it, they have been Socialists.

Among the women who have gone deeply into the new movement and who will attend meetings are Mrs. Alfred J. Boulton, Mrs. Catherine Maltbie Meserole, founder of the Civitas Club, one of the foremost women's clubs in Brooklyn; Dr. Belle V. Aldridge, Mrs. D. G. Hawthorne, one of the best-known teachers in Brooklyn, connected with Public School No. 90.

Mrs. Hawthorne led the first meeting this week, when Rauscherbusch's "Christianity and the Social Crisis" was discussed. Although Mrs. Hawthorne professes to be a novice, yet she feels confident that it is through Christian socialism that women as well as men will attain industrial independence such as Christ meant should exist.

Standard Oil Employee Refuses to Force Woman to Sell to Trust

CLEVELAND, Ohio, March 31.—Value and sympathy, according to Charles Kercher, of Columbia, Ohio, spoiled one deal the Standard Oil Company had arranged for the alleged purpose of obtaining control of the retail oil business in Mobile, Ala. This was brought out at the hearing in the government's ouster suit against the Standard Oil Company today.

Kercher said he was sent to Mobile to obtain by force the tank wagon business of Mrs. Mary Jones, a widow. Mrs. Jones, he said, had inherited a good business from her husband. She was selling 10,000 gallons of oil a month, he said, and was making a profit of two cents a gallon. The witness said the business was worth $10,000, but he was instructed to buy it for $1700.

After the woman had refused to sell out to the trust, he said, the Standard decided not to fight her, as had been planned.

Dropped Wife Out of Window

PITTSBURGH, March 31.—Accused of having thrown his wife from the third story of their home on the North Side, Charles Donley, 45 years old, was arrested yesterday after Mrs. Donley had been found lying unconscious on the pavement in front of the house early in the morning. Donley denies the charge and insists that his wife jumped from the window.

According to Mrs. Donley, she and her husband had a quarrel and he struck her and tried to choke her. A pitched battle ensued and finally forcing her to the window, he picked her up and deliberately threw her out.

Donley, on the other hand, declares his wife was trying to escape from him and that she jumped out of the window, not realizing at the time just what she was doing.

Child Divorced

WILMINGTON, Del., March 31.—Fifteen-year-old Elsie H. Malsberger appeared in the Superior Court recently and asked the judges to annul her marriage to Harry C. Malsberger. She said she was married when 14 years old and admitted that she had deceived her husband as to her age.

Mrs. Malsberger informed the court that she was married without the knowledge or consent of her parents. "We ran away," she said.

"That was a very imprudent and naughty thing to do," remarked Judge Spruance as he granted the petition, and the parting advice of the judge was "not to marry any one else within the year."

There is a Divorce Club in Berlin. Its 300 members are all divorced.

$50 REWARD! To Man or Woman Who Returns My Husband

WILKESBARRE, Pa., March 31.—"Fifty dollars reward. Anybody finding or bringing Charles L. Black to Wilkes-Barre will get the above reward, as he has deserted me without cause.—Mrs. C. L. Black."

Charles Black tired of domestic unhappiness about five weeks ago. He placed a step ladder against the window of his room, and at night, while his wife was sleeping, stole away. Mrs. Black and the police have scoured the city in search of him, but he escaped their traps.

Today Mrs. Black got a number of placards offering a reward, and jauntily marched around the city tacking them to fences, poles and other prominent places. Black was formerly a Philadelphia street car employee. They were married less than a year ago.

Bernard Shaw Wins Browning Society

PHILADELPHIA, March 31.—And now the Browning Society has gone back on its own "Bobbie" and joined the Philistines. It has actually gone over to the iconoclast, Bernard Shaw!

It is supposed to be a secret, at least half the society's members who knew it that it was until the last meeting, when the other half, who weren't supposed to know, told the initiated half in mysterious tones. The play to be given on May 26 is now a Browning drama, but a Shaw satire, "The Man of Destiny."

The society has grown weary of the romantic passion-drama lines of the soul poet. "In a Balcony," "The Blot on the Scutcheon" and other fervid Browning plays have had their day, and that's why the Shaw Napoleonic satire has been chosen for interpretation.

"It certainly is a contrast," said a member recently, "to the plays given on previous anniversaries, but we are glad of a relief from the old-school drama. We don't want to put our audience to sleep; we want to make them sit up and take notice."

Another innovation in the anniversary program this year will be the performance of "Andon," an operetta by two members of the society, Wessell Laps and John Luther Long. The programs for the monthly meetings have included discussion of music and composers, and the operetta is carrying out the original idea of the president, Miss Emily Sartain, to make a departure from the beaten paths.

BROKER'S WIFE HAS A BABY PINK STORE

Mrs. Maud Hall Waterbury, wife of Lawrence Waterbury, broker and polo player, has gone into trade. With her friend, Miss Mabel Drake, she has undertaken the business of selling clothing and other things for infants at 11 West Thirty-seventh street.

If you go there, you won't see Drake & Waterbury, outfitters to infants, over the door. But you may notice the words woven into the lace curtains at the windows. One has to ring the bell in order to gain admittance.

Once in the establishment a line from the immortal poem, "Miss Ginx Jones," comes forcibly to mind—"pink is for babies, for babies, for babies—pink is for babies."

"You see, Mr. Waterbury was very much opposed to my going into this work," said the proprietor, "and—and—I—well, I can, of course, tell you a lot of them, but some of them are rather puzzling. Every one of them is just like the imported models, though."

"Oh, Maude," murmured a dreamy-looking maiden in pastel green broadcloth, suddenly appropriating the doorway as a frame, "was it Voltaire or Kant or that other man whose name begins with 'H' that you wanted me to bring?"

"The other one, I think," replied Maude, fingering a confection of cream lace. "This," she continued, "is a Charlotte Corday, and this—"

One of the forlornest voices in accents of unmitigated terror, and all dashed toward the window whence the sound came.

The basinette stood in the window, and so did "Blazes." "Blazes" was only a toy Boston terrier, who was about to test the resisting powers of lace ruffling.

Japanese Women Dispense With "Loud" Dressing At 25

When she gets past 25 years of age the Japanese noblewoman lays aside bright colors and brilliant effects and wears a dark-brown or dark-blue kimono. This is a kind of the richest material, however, and the family crest is embrodered on neck, shoulders and sleeves. Sometimes during this period a simple design of storks or cranes or a mountain with clouds around it will be embrodered around the bottom of the kimono. Bright colors are absolutely forbidden to the Japanese lady of quality after passing her twenty-fifth birthday. Since she is usually a grandmother about this time, or very shortly afterward, the deprivation is as great as a Westerner would think.

Tribute Paid by Great Actress to Eccentric Author

When that eccentric but rarely gifted author, Ouida, passed, one of her most genuine mourners was one who had never looked upon her face. This was Blanche Bates, who shone with such brilliance as a star in "Under Two Flags," by Ouida. Miss Bates bought in an old shop in New Orleans a photograph of the aged author. The rugged features and volcanic eyes she framed in an oval of dull silver and placed on the desk in a corner of the den of her farm at Ossining. When, the day after her arrival from her long tour, she went to the farm she carried a bunch of immortelles. These she wove into a garland for the frame. "Peace, Ouida," she said, her eyes shining through tears. "You were man and woman! Strong enough to write 'Strathmore,' tender enough to write the story of the 'Hike Bough'."

WINS HER SUIT FOR FIANCÉ'S ESTATE

NEW YORK, March 31.—Miss Edna M. Crawford, who started a suit some six weeks ago against the estate of Frank R. Edmunds, who died in Chicago on November 13 last, has received word that she has won the suit. Edmunds, who was engaged to be married to Miss Crawford at the time of his death, named her as his sole heir, with his step-brother, Roland Graham, as executor. Mr. Graham was going abroad, and he suggested to Miss Crawford that she start a friendly suit against the estate to obtain full control of the property and money which he held in trust.

With Mr. Graham's aid, she now assumes possession of the home in Mount Vernon, New York, owned by Mr. Edmunds, and a substantial sum of money. Miss Crawford has been living with her brother at No. 110 West One Hundred and Twenty-fourth street, but will go south to recuperate from an attack of the grip.

She is making arrangements to bring the body of her fiancé east and inter it in Woodlawn cemetery. Miss Crawford is 24 years old and is well known in Harlem, where she frequently appears in amateur dramatic performances.

Could Beat a Fish Drinking

CHICAGO, March 31.—When Mrs. John T. Reddington told Judge Barnes recently that her husband had been intoxicated 300 times a year since they were married, the court seized his pencil. Mrs. Reddington was suing for a divorce, which was granted. She lived in Norwood Park.

"When did you say you were married?" asked Judge Barnes, preparing to write. "August 10, 1904," was Mrs. Reddington's reply.

"And your husband has been intoxicated 300 times a year since?" queried the judge.

"Each and every year," declared the plaintiff. "Nearly 3000 times," announced the court, putting his pencil aside.

"He struck me and beat me horribly," continued Mrs. Reddington. "He talked to women I don't know over the telephone, and left me many times."

Reddington, who was formerly in the saloon business in Chicago, is now a resident of San Francisco.

James A. Smith, who was accused of taking diamonds worth $1000 from his mother-in-law, Mrs. Margaret Robertson, 535 La Grange street, made a counter charge by declaring that the jewelry was the property of his wife. He also accused his wife of smoking cigarettes and drinking highballs and said that he had lost his position on this account.

"No doubt she has a package of cigarettes in her bag now," continued Smith. Mrs. Smith opened her bag, but there were no cigarettes in sight. She had charged her husband with leaving her, but this was dismissed by Judge Chetlain, who heard the case.

Mrs. Robertson, who declared that she owned the jewelry, admitted on cross examination that she had recently applied to the county agent for aid.

A suit for separate maintenance was filed by Mrs. Herbert Wentz, who declared that on Friday, March 13, her husband threw her down a flight of stairs at their home, 242 Holm street.

Dr. and Mrs. Wentz were married May 16 last year. He is the proprietor of a restaurant on the west side.

According to a bill filed by Mrs. David Arado, her husband's cruelty has made it impossible for her to live together any longer and she wants $100 a month for her support. She declares that her husband, who is a saloonkeeper, has an income of $350 a month.

Mrs. Arado declared in her petition that six weeks ago her life was threatened by Arado, who, she says, had not been faithful to her.

Where Is Cinderella?

Man Found Her Slipper

MANY GIRLS APPLY

CHICAGO, March 31.—A black patent leather slipper, with high French heel, and a dainty No. 3 in size, advertised by W. T. Cavanaugh, as having been found on the nineteenth floor of the Masonic Temple recently, still rests on that gentleman's desk in the offices of the Illinois Commercial Men's Association, waiting for its Cinderella. Mr. Cavanaugh meanwhile has been kept busy answering queries concerning the property and receiving callers who are desirous of demonstrating whether it is the proper fit.

"I've been kept busy ever since advertising the shoe," said he, "and I am astounded at the number of young women there are in the world who have lost a part of their foot gear or who want to pose as Cinderella, and all of whom just happened to be in the Masonic Temple on the day that it was found."

Some of the reasons given by the applicants, according to Mr. Cavanaugh, are amusing.

"One young woman, a beautiful blonde," said he, "told me that she had given a shoe to her brother to get it fixed, and that he had lost it. She was sure that I had her shoe, until I asked her where it was made, and she named a Chicago firm. This shoe was made in Indianapolis."

Mr. Cavanaugh insists that he will "stand pat" until the rightful owner turns up. "I am going to be game," he declared. "I am a single man, and I guess it is all right. It's a pretty party shoe and I inserted the ad to do someone a favor, and after all this competition among the fair sex to be 'my Cinderella,' I am more in favor of it now than ever."

The slipper fitted the foot of Florence Dalton, employed in the Commercial Men's Association office, but she said it wasn't her's.

Will Lose $7,500,000 to Marry De Sagan

MME. GOULD IS ILL NOW

In Addition to Opposition of Family to Prince de Sagan She Suffers From Bronchitis.

NEW YORK, March 31.—Mme. Anna Gould, who recently secured a divorce from Count de Castellane, is ill with bronchitis and stomach trouble in the apartments of her friends, Mr. and Mrs. Tyler Morse, in the Hotel St. Regis. Mme. Gould was said today to be in a very nervous condition.

She went to the St. Regis yesterday afternoon after a conference with her brothers and sisters at the home of Miss Helen Gould, where Mme. Gould had been staying since her arrival from France. It is said that Mme. Gould went to the apartments of Mr. and Mrs. Morse expecting to pay them a visit for several days and that her illness developed unexpectedly.

Since arriving in New York, Mme. Gould has met the Prince de Sagan several times in company with Mr. and Mrs. Morse, and there has been much discussion of the possibility of an announcement that she had become engaged to marry the Prince. The members of the Gould family are reported to be opposed to such an engagement.

Legacy Is Threatened.

"The situation is most distressing," Mrs. Gould is quoted as saying. "Mme. Anna is madly infatuated with Prince de Sagan. She has given her consent to a second marriage into that family. The consent of the executors of Grandfather Gould's estate must be obtained to any marriage or a portion of the legacy will be forfeited."

The section of the will to which Mrs. Gould is said to have referred is numbered second in the codicil written on November 21, 1892, which reads:

"I hereby declare and provide that if any of my children shall marry without my consent, the share of the estate of a majority of the executors and trustees under this will, then and in that event the share allotted to the child so married in and to said will and codicil shall be reduced one-half and the principal of the other half of the said share shall be paid, assigned, transferred or set over to such persons as under the laws of the State of New York would take the same if I died intestate."

Cut Down $7,500,000.

In various suits against Mme. Gould when she was Countess de Castellane it was brought out that her share of the Gould estate was $15,000,000, and that the income had averaged $600,000 a year. If she persists in marrying the Prince de Sagan without the consent of three of the executors of the estate she would lose over $7,500,000 in a lump sum and $300,000 a year would be cut off her income. The executors provided by Jay Gould are George J. Gould, Edwin Gould, Howard Gould and Miss Helen M. Gould.

Mrs. Gould's position is definitely known to be unchangeably opposed to the match. Howard Gould is having matrimonial troubles of his own and is paying little attention to the matter. Edwin Gould is the hardest working member of the family and has so far maintained about absolute silence.

Miss Helen M. Gould also is believed to be hostile.

Miss Gould was not over demonstrative when she met her sister at the place. They have not been seen together since the Prince de Sagan threw off his disguise.

Judge McAllister, Son of '400' Founder, Is Dead.

Passed Away Last Night in San Rafael.

SAN RAFAEL, March 31.—Judge Ward McAllister, son of the former society leader of New York, died at 9:30 o'clock this morning at a local sanitarium from the effects of an operation for appendicitis. For two years he had been a sufferer from paralysis and in his weakened condition he was unable to survive long after the operation, which was performed last Saturday.

He was born in Newport, R. I., in 1844, and attended the University of Princeton and the Albany and Harvard law schools. He was United States attorney in California from 1882 to 1884 and then received a Presidential appointment as district judge in Alaska. When he retired from the government service he was retained by the Pacific Coast Company. Judge McAllister was prominent in club and social circles in San Francisco.

Ward McAllister Sr., brother of the dead jurist, was for many years the president of the society in the East and the person responsible for the "400" which was the social listing in the visiting lists of New York.

Ward McAllister's dictum was absolute law in the East and he enjoyed his reign until his death.

For the last three years Judge McAllister was cared for by his relatives. He was attended by the services of the best physicians and received every possible attention.

HANNA, Wyo., March 31.—Under orders from Governor E. Brooks, State Mine Inspector Noah Young has begun an investigation of the causes of the two explosions here last Saturday in which at least fifty-nine lives were lost. The corner is delaying the investigation until it shall be determined whether the bodies still in the mine can be recovered. No further effort to open the mine will be made until the fire is smothered. It is hoped to resume the search for bodies next Thursday.

Work was begun this morning for the purpose of recovering the 50 bodies which are still in the mine. Scores of men are working about the east stope entrance, clearing away the loose earth and digging out the shattered timbers. As soon as the east stope is partially cleared the rescue party will proceed, bratticing the stope in front of them as they go. All the entries will be sealed up, and by carrying the brattice in front of them, the danger of another explosion will be removed.

No smoke was issuing from the mine this morning and there was a noticeable rise in the temperature of the air from under the ground. The men will work in three shifts and inside of a week all the bodies which are in the ruins may be recovered.

It is known that there are 15 or 20 bodies close to the surface probably just behind the tons of earth and debris which now choke the east stope of the mine. These are the men who were bringing the bodies of Gus Ramble and Jack Rimmer to the top.

The second explosion caught them when they were almost in sight of the men on the outside.

INGLESIDE TRACK FOR CITY'S USE

New California Jockey Club Turns It Over for Hospital Purposes.

The California Jockey Club, of which Thomas H. Williams Jr., is president, has turned over to the City of San Francisco for its use for a city and county hospital, the buildings of the old Ingleside race track. The offer was made through the Board of Health by President Williams to Mayor Taylor and the Board of Supervisors.

The details are succinctly told in the following conversation held with President Williams this morning by a TRIBUNE reporter:

"I understand you have given the Ingleside race track over to the City and County of San Francisco for a hospital?"

"Yes."

"For how long?"

"Until they build theirs."

"Only temporarily, then?"

"For about a year or so."

"When was this done?"

"About three weeks ago."

"Was it done by the California Jockey Club?"

"Yes."

"And is just turned over to them for a year or so?"

"Yes, until they build their other hospital."

"How long is it since there has been racing there?"

"A little over two years."

"Has it been lying idle since then?"

"Yes, excepting that about 300 refugees were housed there after the earth-

BURGLARS LOOT A BARBER SHOP

Steal Strops, Razors and Scissors; Other Thefts Reported to Police.

C. Brandon, John Kehoe and Thomas Hayes, proprietors of a barber shop at 455 Sixth street, reported to the police this morning that while they were at supper last night the shop was entered and all their razors, scissors, strops, hones and cups were taken. Entrance to the place was gained through a rear door which had been left unlocked and the robbers made a complete loot of the tonorial instruments.

Mrs. J. J. Marcovich, 550 Thirtieth street, reports that her home was entered some time last week and that a P. O. box, containing several diamonds was stolen. Mrs. Marcovich is the widow of John M. Marcovich, formerly proprietor of the Gas Kitchen, who was killed some months ago by a waiter, Frank Smith, whom he had discharged.

An unknown man appeared yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Mary Bacon, 1222 Twelfth avenue, and after engaging a room for himself and a friend, left the house for a few minutes, ostensibly for the purpose of bringing the man with whom he was to share his room. On his return he went to the room and disappeared shortly afterward, taking a quantity of clothing with him.

"Will there be any changes made?"

"None are necessary. Several buildings as they are will be used as a hospital. It was turned over to the mayor and the Board of Supervisors through the Board of Health."

THIS BILL IS NOT VERY CLEAR

Estimate on the Measure Finds Many Provisions Lacking for Ascertaining Values.

WASHINGTON, March 31.—The Senate Committee on inter-state commerce has received a letter from Chairman Knapp of the Interstate Commerce Commission, giving the commission's estimate of the La Follette bill for an official valuation of railway property. In the main Mr. Knapp quotes from suggestions made by Henry C. Adams, chief counsel for the commission, in regard to a similar bill referred to him a year ago and from the last annual report of the commission, and then adds:

"As to the time likely to be required for performing the work of valuation and its probable expense we are of the opinion that the estimate of Mr. Adams in his letter of 1906, is too conservative and we understand that he is now of the same opinion."

"The selection of first class engineers and other assistants and the organization of a sufficient and reliable force will require careful inquiry and consideration. A reasonable time should be allowed for this preliminary but most important part of the work."

"While we are unable to form an altogether confident judgment, we think it not unlikely that three years would be necessary to complete the proposed valuation and that the total expense would perhaps not be less than $3,000,000. At the same time we have no reason to believe that these limits would be materially exceeded."

Upon the bill itself aside from the general question involved, Mr. Knapp says it is not clear whether the measure is intended to provide for the valuation of electric urban railways, which he thinks should be excluded except as they are integral parts of or subsidiary to the steam railways. It is pointed out also that it is not clear whether the bill is intended to apply to express companies, sleeping car companies, pipe lines, boat lines, transfers and common carriers of similar classes. It is suggested that the bill should include provision for the valuation of cars of packing companies and other private concerns, whose equipment is used in inter-state transportation.

He says that the bill should contain some general instructions relative to the report to be made and calling for an analysis of the elements that constitute the valuation of railway property. Such an analysis is essential before any judicial use can be made of the figures reported.

Another matter criticised by the commission is the fact that the bill makes no provision for the right of agents of the commission to enter upon the property of the corporations. It is stated that the most important point in an inventory valuation is the extent to which the property has depreciated and for this and other purposes Chairman Knapp says that if there is to be legislation of this character the agents of the commission must have free access to the property of the railroad companies as well as access to the records.

ITALIANS TO GIVE ROYAL WELCOME TO RACING AUTOMOBILE FROM SUNNY ITALY

PARTY ON WAY TO MEET THE CAR

Counsel - General Rocca and Prominent Countrymen to Head Reception.

(Special to The Tribune.)

SAN FRANCISCO, March 31.—The Italian colony is preparing to give an enthusiastic reception to the Italian motor-car "Zust," which will soon arrive in this city. Armando Pedrini, president of the Italian Touring Club and cashier of the Bank of Italy, is in charge of the preparations and will leave this morning in a Thomas flyer to meet the car at Los Banos.

Other members of the Italian colony, including Consul General Cez. S. Rocca and several members of the Italian Chamber of Commerce, will leave later on and meet the Italian racers at San Jose, where it is planned to have quite a celebration.

The reception committee will then escort the car to this city and a demonstration and parade will take place similar to that which was had when the American car arrived so far in advance of all rivals. A change of route is planned, however, and the procession will take in the entire Italian quarter of the city. The route as planned at present is as follows: Leaving the ferry the parade will proceed west on Market street to Montgomery, thence to Montgomery avenue, thence to the seawall, thence to Van Ness avenue, to Sutter, to Fillmore, to Golden Gate avenue, to the garage.

Girilio Sirtori, who is at the wheel of the Italian car, is recognized as one of the cleverest automobilists of the day. He is noted for his skill in controlling his car at a high rate of speed and is singularly free from any nervousness. He is only 26 years old and a native of Milano. Antonio Scarfoglio, who is also in the party, is the second son of Edoardo Scarfoglio, a famous newspaper man connected with "Il Mattino" of Naples. He is but 21 years of age and will make up a diary of the trip. The third member of the crew is Enrico Haane. He is the machinist and throughout the trip so far has had his hands full keeping the car in repair. He is a German by birth, but a naturalized citizen of Italy.

"How is Nellye Pounder's execution on the piano?"

TOWN ASSESSOR SERIOUSLY ILL

HARRY J. SQUIRES.

Harry J. Squires Near Death's Door as Result of Overwork.

BERKELEY, March 31.—Town Assessor Harry J. Squires is seriously ill. He was stricken a few days ago while at work in his office and has since been hovering near death at his home, 1228 Shattuck avenue. Relatives have been constantly at his bedside and a number of social functions have been postponed because of his condition.

Squires has been ailing for some time. The physicians wanted him some time ago that he was overworking himself in the assessor's office and suggested a long rest. Squires dismissed the idea. It is probable that should he recover he will not be strong enough to resume his duties for months.

Squires is a brother-in-law of Frank S. Naylor of the First National Bank, of Charles E. Wiggins and of John M. Foy, secretary of the Board of Harbor Commissioners of San Francisco. The family is one of the most prominent in Berkeley.

ORDERS SCAVENGERS OFF NEW DUMPING GROUNDS

District Attorney Brown Complicates the Garbage Muddle; Mayor Disregards Legal Notices.

BERKELEY, March 31.—For one brief hour yesterday afternoon Berkeley had a garbage dump on the old boneyard property and saw the scavengers at work for the first time in a week. This morning when the drivers would resume work they were served with notice from District Attorney Brown, through his deputy, Phil M. Carey, threatening them with all sorts of dire legal disasters if they persisted in unloading their wagons. The scavengers were given five days to make a defense and showing. The city has determined to fight Brown's decision. The scavengers went back to work at 1 o'clock this afternoon, ignoring completely the notices.

The notice from the District Attorney was served on Joseph Birella, as head of the scavengers' union, and W. D. Mann, manager of the San Francisco Chemical Works. Birella says that the man who served the document exhibited a gun in a very threatening manner. The hint was sufficient. The scavengers knocked off work in a second, and Berkeley is again without place and disposal of its garbage, now accumulating at the rate of fifty tons a day and hundreds of tons of it lying ungathered all about the city.

Seek Mayor for Advice.

Birella and his scavengers fled to Mayor Ferrier for advice and protection. The Mayor at the time was still filing with Town Clerk Mendenhall a copy of an agreement he had effected with the Chemical Works for the lease of a boneyard property for six months at the rate of $250 a month. The two in turn sought the advice of Town Attorney Staats.

The sudden turn of affairs completely disconcerted the town officials, the members of the citizens committee and the Sierra XI society. They realized that Berkeley had about reached the end of its garbage rope. One after another the plans proposed by the Board of Trustees and the health officials for a month past, since the Contra Costa County Board of Health were called for this afternoon. Meantime on the advice of Town Attorney Staats, Mayor Ferrier issued orders to the scavengers to continue. The Mayor was powerless to effect his wishes. Birella and his men, thoroughly disgusted by being driven from pillar to post, refused to move.

Club to Blame, Is Claim.

The order from the District Attorney came, it is understood, at the representations of the members of the Ocean View Improvement Club, an organization of property owners about the south slopes and flats about McKeeville hill. John O'Brien, John Galpin and J. McCutcheon, a committee appointed to prepare defensive measures for the neighborhood, during the riots precipitated by the residents about Corbin station when the scavengers undertook to dump on the George Schmidt property at the foot of Harrison street, waited upon District Attorney Brown yesterday afternoon and declared that the boneyard as a dump would be a nuisance and a menace to the health of the whole McKeeville hill and Ocean View district.

the health of the whole McKeeville hill and Ocean View district.

"This was purely a defensive measure," said Lollie Nielsen, superintendent of the Vigorito Dynamite Works, a member of the club. "The people here felt that they were menaced by a nuisance and in consequence of the assistance of the District Attorney."

OBJECTS TO BROWN 'BUTTING IN.'

Town Attorney Redmond C. Staats wants to know why District Attorney Brown "budded into" the controversy. "If Brown thinks that he can handle this question I am in favor of letting him go ahead. If he believes that he can carry favor with the people of West Berkeley and Ocean View, why well and good, but he must remember that there are some people in East Berkeley that will be heard from. I have told the trustees that it is up to Brown to show his hand. He must go ahead and prove that the town is maintaining a nuisance. Anyhow, I don't see why the trustees should worry up to them to make this fight. They have been endeavoring for a month to solve this question and not at the last moment the District Attorney rushed in. Where does Brown want the garbage dumped? Will he let us take it down to the Oakland estuary? That might be an appropriate place for it. There was no reason for this stop. It savors of something more than a desire to maintain the dignity of the sanitary laws. Some people playing their games overplay them."

Notice Served.

This notice was served on Joseph Birella this morning and the people of the San Francisco Chemical Works. It is full of "ifs" and "so and so's," as long as the city does not move, and forbids any and everybody from doing anything of the kind. The trustees should wash their hands of the whole matter. It is none of their business. Let them leave it to the District Attorney to solve this garbage question. If Berkeley does not know that there is any law being violated, it has been up to West Berkeley and to the town dumps to see for himself what is going on. I for one would now make a whole question to the District Attorney. He is not up to the task. There is no use of the trustees loafing and worrying themselves to death over a matter that does not concern them in the least."

For W. C. Morgan of the department of chemistry in the State University and head of the citizens' health committee declares that the new turn in affairs is due to the unwholesome notoriety stirred up among the people of the west end and that this is the district matter, but I think the trustees should get some definite plan and stick to it," said Prof. Morgan. "This is not a matter for change of front every hour. I believe that a fight should now be made in the courts by the town."

Orders Scavengers to Continue.

Mayor Ferrier said he believed that the District Attorney had invited a fight and would get one.

"I have instructed the scavengers to continue dumping," said the Mayor. "I think it is up to District Attorney Brown to prove that we are maintaining a nuisance as he intimates in this lengthy notice he has served on the scavengers. This ground is 500 yards from the nearest house. No one is injured because of dumping on the boneyard. The San Francisco Chemical Works people know this and I believe they will join with us in a flash fight with the District Attorney and the Ocean View Improvement Club."

"I want the people of Berkeley to know who is stopping and interfering with the dumping of garbage. I want them to know that we had perfected arrangements for dumping for the next six months at least yesterday afternoon and now the District Attorney comes in and tells us that we are maintaining a nuisance and that he is responsible for this state of affairs. The people should remember this. There is no nuisance here and the trustees and everybody with any knowledge of the real condition of affairs know it. The District Attorney says otherwise and let the people look to him for relief."

Deputy District Attorney Carey, who is handling the garbage matter, said this morning:

"It has been said that this office has issued injunctions in the garbage matter. This is all wrong, as the only thing that has been done has been the issuing of the notice to Joseph Birella. It is now up to the Ocean View Improvement Club to swear to a warrant if they so desire."

Mephisto, the beautiful trotter that was owned by A. O. Gott found a section of the box that had contained the poison and some of the mixture itself. He is at a loss to account for the presence of the rough on rats in the oats and does not think that any person would take such dastardly means to destroy the horse. Mephisto was valued at $1000.

CITY COUNCIL VINDICATES HEALTH OFFICER DR. CLARK

Charges of Unofficial Misconduct Dropped

ALAMEDA, March 31.—Victory and vindication rested with Dr. J. Emmet Clark, president of the Board of Health, last night in the matter of the charges of "unofficial misconduct" which had been preferred against him by Mayor E. K. Taylor, and which had been set for hearing before the city council. A packed lobby, including many prominent citizens and a number of women, were present with the expectation of hearing something sensational. They had come with the impression that they were to witness something as exciting as a three ring circus performance, but what they were given after a tedious wait of nearly two hours was not as stirring as a side show.

When the mayor and the president of the Board of Health finally came out of the city clerk's office upstairs in the city hall and made their way downstairs to the crowded chamber of the city council there was a brief announcement by the chief executive of said Dr. J. Emmet Clark, M. D., in his affirmative answer and cross-complaint and that the charges against the head of the sanitary department had been withdrawn by the mayor and that Dr. Clark had been restored to full power. The mayor upon making this announcement left his chair and going to the table where Dr. Clark and his attorney, J. S. Sands, were sitting, enacted a Damon and Pythias turn, shaking the hand of Dr. Clark and saying, "I salute the president of the Board of Health."

The impression created last Friday night by the tactics of the mayor that he did not want to "go to the bat" in prosecuting his allegations against Dr. Clark was strengthened last night when he called for the president of the health board and the latter's attorney and said that he desired to confer with them in private. This conference took place in the office of the city clerk and was attended by a number of councilmen up to a certain point when all departed, leaving the mayor and the health board president and attorney Sand to reach an understanding that was reduced to writing and signed by the mayor. This statement of the agreement was read by City Clerk F. E. Browning and was as follows:

"To the Honorable, the City Council, City of Alameda: Whereas, I am satisfactorily convinced that J. Emmet Clark, M. D., president of the Alameda Board of Health of said city has not in the presentation or the approval of any claim against the said City of Alameda, intentionally violated any law. It is stipulated by me as Mayor of the City of Alameda, that all charges and specifications against said Dr. Clark be and are dismissed, and the suspension of said J. Emmet Clark, M. D., president of said Board of Health is hereby revoked and rescinded and Dr. Clark be and is restored to the presidency thereof and to all his rights and powers incident thereto and formerly enjoyed by him as such member and president."

"E. K. TAYLOR, Mayor of Alameda."

The agreement was ratified by the City Council and Dr. Clark and his attorney took their departure from the Council chamber. Mayor Taylor then brought up the matter of annexing Fruitvale to this city and called on Alexander Mackie for a talk. Then the lobby, tired from a long wait during the Clark and Taylor conference, was not in a mood to listen to annexation talk and deserting the chamber, brought on a motion to adjourn, which was carried unanimously.

Timely Intervention of Police Saves Life of Young White Man.

ATLANTA, Ga., March 31.—The timely arrival of the police with loaded rifles stopped what threatened to be a lynching in Brownsville, a suburb of Atlanta, early today. The man threatened was B. R. Chapin, a young white man, and he was surrounded by a crowd of colored men when the two county officers came to his aid and drove the mob back. The negroes claimed they found the white man in a negro house and dragged him out and, according to the police, were about to suspend him from a tree when officers arrived.

ELECTION FIGHT ON IN MELROSE

Defeated Candidate Sues Elected One, Charging Voting Frauds.

There is a small tempest raging at Melrose, caused by the election held on March 9 for the selection of a member of the Melrose sanitary board. Andrew J. Crane today filed suit against W. P. Floyd, who was declared elected as a member of the board, contesting his election. Crane charges that the election officers were prejudiced against him and that they are guilty of misconduct in alleging that votes were counted for Floyd which should not have been counted at all or for him.

The election board declared that Floyd had been elected, with 86 votes in his favor, to 83 for Crane. Crane claims that he should have been elected, with 99 votes to his credit and 20 for Floyd.

IMITATION OF STONES MEETS SMALL SUCCESS

WASHINGTON.—Consul William Bardsley of Hamburg, advises the State Department that about forty artificial precious stones were recently submitted to the Museum of Natural History in Berlin by an association which claimed to have made these stones, based on the process which recently created so much attention.

Several official experts, among whom was the professor having knowledge of gems in the museum of natural history, two practical experts, and the chief master of the gold and silver smiths' guild of Germany, were requested to make a careful examination of the merits of the "so-called" new discoveries. The report submitted by this committee of experts reads as follows:

Of the variety of stones we examined we were favorably impressed only by the artificial rubies. Among these were some of great beauty and worthy of consideration. The white sapphires were of no account at all; they appeared dull and washed out. Well imitated were the yellow precious stones; they really resembled the topaz very closely; but this invention carries with it only very little value, since the real topaz is found in such large quantities that they sell at from 2 to 3 marks (176 to 714 cents a gramme). Therefore it would seem of little importance to "imitate such common stones." Of all the stones we examined, we can only call the artificial rubies a direct success; but the imitation of this latter species of precious stones is no new invention. We therefore declare that there is nothing new or sensational in the claimed invention.

BRYAN THINKS THE REPUBLICANS OUGHT TO NOMINATE LA FOLLETTE

Democratic Standard Bearer Talks of Republican Presidential Candidates.

KANSAS CITY, March 31.—Democrats from all parts of Missouri to the number of 2000 attended a banquet in Convention hall in this city last night under the auspices of the Young Men's Democratic Club of Missouri, at which W. J. Bryan and Judson Harmon were the guests of honor and principal speakers and the recipients of repeated ovations from the 15,000 persons who thronged the great hall. Each banquetter paid one dollar for the privilege of attending, even the distinguished guests insisting upon the Democratic prerogative of paying for their plates. Among the guests were four ex-governors of Missouri—T. T. Crittenden, David R. Francis, Senator William J. Stone and Alexander M. Dockery, together with the present Governor, Joseph W. Folk. All of the candidates for state officers were present.

Mr. Bryan's opening statement that "we have met to begin the campaign of 1908 and to present those principles and policies which ought to appeal to Republicans as well as to traditional Democrats" was the keynote of his speech and showed the important significance he and his followers attached to the meeting tonight. A feature of Bryan's speech was his approval of Senator La Follette as the Republican candidate for President. He said:

"In this great city on the boundary line between Missouri, with her rock-ribbed Democracy and the West, which until 1896 was counted as Republican territory, we have met to begin the campaign of 1908 and to present those principles and policies which ought to appeal to progressive Republicans as well as to traditional Democrats. It is only a recognition of a fact which is becoming clear to all, to say that there is a Democratic element in the Republican party to which a successful appeal can be made. I might give several evidences of this fact. In the first place, what is known as the Roosevelt sentiment is strong in the valleys of the Mississippi and the Missouri; and the Roosevelt sentiment is not so much attached to a person as devotion to an idea with which the person has identified himself. And what is this idea? It is the idea that conditions are not what they should be. Before a remedy can be applied the need of a remedy must be admitted.

"For years the Democratic party has been pointing out the abuses which have been growing under the Republican rule, but those abuses have been denied by Republican leaders and the country has been contented upon the possession of everything essential to its welfare. Republican platforms have been full of fulsome eulogy and the Republican party and banner of promises of reform. Even the platform of 1904 upon which President Roosevelt was elected was silent in regard to Government evils and gave no hope of relief.

What Roosevelt Did.

"To the surprise of Democrats and to the surprise of Republicans as well, the President began to recommend remedial legislation, taking as his guide the platform declarations of the Democratic party. He did not follow in the footsteps of Democracy out of any desire to compliment the Democrats or to encourage them, but simply because the Democrats had pre-empted all the ground in front and he could not go forward without trespassing upon their land. It is not strange that his suggestions were hailed with delight by Democrats and met with indignation by Republicans. Whether the President cultivated a reform sentiment in the Republican party, or only revealed a previously existing sentiment we shall never know and the question is not material anyhow. It is sufficient that that sentiment now exists. It is sufficient that it is so strong that the President is praised by the masses just in proportion as he assails the predatory corporations and pleads for reforms that look to the restoration of equity and fairness in the government.

Roosevelt No Democrat.

"The President is not a Democrat, for he leans toward Hamilton, rather than toward Jefferson, and he favors a concentration of power in Washington and a centralization of government which Democrats regard as distinctly hostile to the national welfare. It is proof that the reform sentiment in the Republican party is not only large, but militant, that the corporate interests, powerful as they are, have not been able to coerce the middle-west into the support of any of the Republican candidates who are regarded as reactionary. This in itself is the most powerful sign of a Democratic victory, for the President having aroused this sentiment, the Republican party must satisfy the expectations excited, or lose the support of the rank and file of the party.

"Now, what prospect is there that the Republican national convention will satisfy the urgent demands of reform—Republicans? I venture to predict that no serious attempt will be made to satisfy these demands. Two things are necessary to establish confidence in the intention of the party to repeal its own laws and to reform the abuses which have grown out of Republican legislation and administration and these two things are, first, a platform specifically pledging the party to clearly defined reforms, and second, the nomination of a ticket composed of men imbued with the spirit of reform.

Points to Trust.

"If in the coming campaign the Republicans have an ambitious platform, filled with glittering generalities and fragrant with bouquets thrown at the Republican party, a Republican President elected upon it would be as good as the present President has been. I say powerlessness—for what has the President succeeded in doing? There are more trusts today than there were when he entered office and he has never succeeded in getting a law enacted to strengthen the present law. He has not succeeded in putting a trust magnate in the penitentiary, and the only large fine that has been imposed has aroused more criticism than commendation among Republican leaders. He has not secured any tariff reform, and yet he has been in office for over seven years. He has not secured the enactment of the necessary labor legislation. He has not secured an income tax, and the Republican Senators forced him into a compromise on the railroad question.

La Follette and Taft.

"But even a good platform would be worthless without a candidate who would carry the spirit of the platform. And what candidate have they? If the President has picked out Senator La Follette, a real reformer; if the Republican party had called to Senator La Follette's support it could have compelled the confidence of reform Republicans. Senator La Follette has a record as a reformer, he has fought corporate domination in his own State for a decade.

"The President has picked out Secretary Taft and given him the support of the administration. Without the support of the administration the Secretary would scarcely have a State in the convention, and with the President's support is having an uphill fight. He has no record as a reformer and his speeches do not indicate a definite purpose of a courageous program. He has no record as a man the President could find among his Cabinet officers, but Secretary Taft's superiority over his colleagues is due not to his positive virtues, but to the fact that none of the rest of them has any reform tendencies of whom has any reform tendencies whatever. In fact, the widespread reform sentiment among the Republican masses is not reflected to any considerable extent among Republican leaders.

What Does Taft Stand For?

"What does Secretary Taft stand for? What does he denounce as wrong? What does he propose as a ### remedy?

"What would he do with the trusts? He tells us that he would not exterminate them, but simply regulate them.

"What does he propose on the tariff question? Revision, but not until after election.

"What reform does Secretary Taft propose for the benefit of labor? The laboring men insist that they are entitled to trial by jury but Secretary Taft went all the way to Oklahoma to find fault with a provision in the Oklahoma constitution securing this protection to the laboring man. In fact, Secretary Taft's proposals give us from the burdens which imperialism has imposed upon the country? The appropriation for the army and navy has increased more than a hundred millions a year since we entered upon our colonial experiment. Our army is more than twice as large as it was in 1890 and we are still denying the Philippine Islands the doctrine set forth in the Declaration of Independence that governments derive their just power from the consent of the governed.

Taft and the Railroads.

"What is Secretary Taft going to do on the railroad question? In one speech he took occasion to explain that the President was not responsible for rate reductions; this would indicate that Secretary Taft does not favor rate reductions. He is in favor of authorizing the Interstate Commerce Commission to ascertain the present value of railroads. He is willing to prevent the future issue of watered stock? Does he urge reduction in freight and passenger rates whenever and whenever such reductions can be made without injustice to honest investment?

"He has given no assurance on these questions and we must judge what he would do by what he has said or fails to say. If when he is trying to secure the support of reform Republicans, he is so evasive on the subject, what could we expect of him if he were elected?

"Does Secretary Taft favor the national incorporation of railroads, as suggested by the President? Would he favor a law withdrawing from the States their control over railroads and vesting exclusive control in the Federal Government? And if he favors national incorporation would he be in favor of giving the railroads a perpetual franchise and a perpetual guarantee of income?

Says Masses Favor Reform.

"If not, will he explain why he will be more unjust to the Filipinos than to the people of his own country?

"What chances of reform is there at the hands of the Republican leaders who take the side of corporations against the people and act upon the theory that inducements must be held out to capital, no matter how great the burdens imposed upon the producers of wealth.

"There is no doubt that the masses of the people, Republican and Democratic, are in favor of reform. If we only convince the voters that the Democratic party will be true to reform, victory is assured, and the only way in which we can convince the public that we honestly desire to administer the government in behalf of the people is to give them an honest platform, employ honest arguments and conduct a campaign by honest methods and through an honest organization."

THIS S. F. WOMAN MAY BE ANOTHER MRS. CHADWICK

Accused of Using Names of Big Men as Bait for the Unsuspecting.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 31.—This city has a woman who, if accusations are true, will be a close rival of the famous Cassie Chadwick. She is Mrs. Fannie M. Austin of 641 O'Farrell street and her operations have become so widespread that the District Attorney's office was yesterday forced to take action.

In her present scheme she is accused of using the names of such well known capitalists as D. O. Mills, Mrs. John W. Mackay, Homer S. King and Reuben H. Lloyd to interest people whom she wishes to invest with her. When these names do not make an impression on prospective clients she is said to have spoken of her intimacy with Judge Frank Murasky, Attorney Harry T. Creswell, William Talbot, the lumber king, and Dr. C. Cranz.

Mrs. Austin was under arrest once before charged with grand larceny on account of her connection with an alleged medical man, Charles de Witt Spence, in swindling a helpless woman out of the greater part of her fortune.

Great interest is also centered in the saloon fight, as the question of license or no license will be decided at the city election April 18. The anti-saloon forces are well organized and confident of victory, although the saloon men are putting up a hard fight.

TELLS ROOSEVELT TO USE BIG STICK ON THE KAISER

William Talks Too Much, Hints Writer

LONDON, March 31.—All the London papers are now in possession of the latest phase of the Hill incident, but for the most part they refrain from comment. The Daily News, however, in an editorial, says that the Emperor's whinger carries further than the thunders of other men. "It all goes to show," says the paper, "that the Emperor ought never to write to his friends nor talk freely at the dinner table, for he is a man of impulsive temperament and singularly unfitted for a role where discretion is the supreme virtue."

The Daily Express says: "The new diplomacy of the dinner table and ball room is a palpable anachronism. To have it recognized that a man is unfitted to be Ambassador unless he is wealthy and consumed with a desire to give lavish entertainments is to put back the hands of the clock of history. President Roosevelt will not be the man we take him for if he does not bring down the big stick on this particular cabal."

JUDGE S. ARTMAN GIVES TALK ON LIQUOR EVIL Says State Cannot Legalize Wrong

The auditorium of the First M. E. Church held a large audience last night, under the auspices of the Church Federation, to listen to an address by Judge Samuel R. Artman of Lebanon, Indiana, on the best way to destroy the liquor traffic. Judge Artman has become known in a special manner throughout the country because of a decision rendered by him to the effect that, as the saloon tended toward the demoralization and injury of the people, no city, county or State, which was presumed to be organized for the welfare of the people, could lawfully grant a saloon license to do business.

He reiterated this opinion last night, and supported his contention by extracts from decisions of Supreme Courts in various States as to the purposes for which governments were established and what was the meaning of common law. He cried down the evasion of the law which was practiced by certain communities and declared that the only way in which to regulate the saloon was to annihilate it.

Rev. White Presides.

The exercises were called to order by Rev. Mr. White, pastor of the church, who introduced Judge T. W. Harris, who, in turn, introduced Judge Artman, who was received with cheers.

"I have," said Judge Artman, "had a great deal of newspaper notoriety. Some years ago, I appeared in a little town in Indiana, in which there are three papers. One of them said I was a wonder. The other said I was an answerable. The third said I was meaner than Senator Boone."

"The temperance question is one of external scope. It affects the social, moral and intellectual character of the community. There is a great deal of difference between the drink habit and the individual and the drink saloon of the community. I am impressed with the idea that the relief is to be obtained by laying the ax at the root of the evil."

No Respectable Saloons.

"Last year I heard a friend of mine discuss the respectable saloon. He said that the only theory about it was that it did not exist. General Sheridan once said that there was no good Indian save a dead one. There was, therefore, no good saloon but a dead one."

"There are some people who are of the opinion that a saloon is a legalized institution. That is because of the license. Now how is it possible to legalize what is evil?"

"After the organization of the United States Supreme Court the court defined what was common law. If the saloon was destructive of the morals of the community it was in conflict with the common law as defined by the United States Supreme Court."

"A few years ago the Supreme Court of Missouri said that the common law was the public good. Would you say that the saloon was conducive to the public good? I will leave you to answer the question. No more potent power can be found for the keeping up of jails and insane asylums than the saloon."

Three-fourths of Crime

"The Supreme Court of the State of Indiana has said that the saloon was responsible for three-fourths of the crime committed in that State. If you place that status on the saloon as did the Supreme Court of my State, how can you believe that the saloon is lawful or that it is not subversive of public good?"

"Do not understand me as saying that all that the courts has said has been on that side of the question. There have been a great many things said on both sides of that case, but there must be some means of leaving the people to decide for themselves among those contradictory opinions."

"In order to determine this we must consider each decision according to principle."

"The Supreme Court of one State has decided that there was no more illegality to a saloon than there was to an ice cream parlor. At another time the same court said there was no more wrong in drinking liquor than there was in drinking water. Still again the court said beer and liquor were brewed and distilled by God and that those liquors had been made by God for the pleasure and hilarity of men."

Declares Saloon Public Wrong.

"But there have been changes in those views. A saloon is a menace to society. It is therefore a public wrong. Can, therefore, a State put itself in the condition of delegating to any person to legalize a public wrong? It is my opinion that no Legislature can legally authorize the doing of a public wrong. Has the State the right to allow the creation of a ratlesnake nest? It is my opinion that such a thing could not legally be authorized. The right to run a saloon is not inherent, is not inalienable, not constitutional and is not natural. The courts have answered this question. The object of a saloon license is to secure permission to do something which could not be done without it. The Supreme Courts of Indiana and Illinois had decided that a license was only a permit. Courts have declared time and again that no State could bargain away the public health. If we authorize an illegal institution to exist do we not legalize the natural results?"

Courts Give Different Opinions.

"Courts have also discussed the other side of the question. They have held that a license was prohibitive. They have also held that it conferred a right which did not exist without it. Now how can those two propositions stand legally together?"

"In every State of the Union there is a prohibitive proposition, but that is gotten around by the license authorities. Two years ago in our county we had thirty-five saloons. Tonight we have one. Tomorrow night at 11 o'clock we will have none. In my State from 11 o'clock at night until 5 o'clock in the morning it is illegal to sell liquor. You can regulate things that are lawful, but you cannot legally regulate that which is not lawful. Regulation of the saloon is a different thing. It is beyond the authority of any council to license a house of bad repute. Being inherently immoral the Legislature has no authority to license such a place. Such would not be regulation. It would be evasion. Lincoln, as far back as 1853, said that the saloon was a cancer, eating out the vitals of the people. They should not be regulated. There was only one way in which to regulate them and that way is to annihilate them. A few days ago I lectured in San Jose. There was in front of me an old gray-headed man and when I quoted that opinion of Lincoln that old man said: 'I heard him say it.'"

"It has been said that the driving out of the saloon would injure business. I my town I know a man whom I have seen put on a wagon like a dog and taken to jail. 'I cannot,' this man said to me, 'keep away from the saloon. I come down town with my mind made up not to drink, but I can't keep away from the counter. Then I get drunk. Then I am put in jail and it costs $10.50 to get out. Now if there were no saloons here I would not drink.' They say that if the saloons are driven out it would hurt business. Now I would like to know how it is going to hurt my business. I was unable to answer his question."

Will Not Hurt

"There is nothing in the argument that the saloon must be allowed for revenue. If the saloonkeepers will pay me what it costs to support the pauperism and the misery which the saloon causes, I will pay twice as much into the treasury as the licenses produce."

"There are places in prohibitive States where the prohibitive statute is not enforced but that is due to the perfidy of the officers."

"In Kansas City, Kansas, the mayor had stated that God would not and men could not enforce the prohibitive law, but when another mayor was elected to succeed him the law was enforced in sixty days. The gambling dens were closed and the houses of social evil were driven to another State. When we vote on this question from the public good we will solve many of these social evils."

PIONEER OF OAKLAND DIES AT A ripe OLD AGE

Deceased Was Among Best Known of Early Residents.

Once more has the call of death come to a pioneer of Oakland and the response to this call was answered by Mrs. Beale Montgomery, wife of the late John L. Montgomery, last Sunday morning.

Mrs. Montgomery was a native of Brooklyn, N. Y., and had been a resident of this city since the 50's and one of the best known of the early pioneers of this city and State. Kind and sincere in her attention, Mrs. Montgomery was beloved by all with whom she came in contact and it was a sad shock to her friends when she was called to her reward. She was sixty-three years of age at the time of her death.

The deceased leaves two sons and three daughters, John D., William T., and Mabel Montgomery, Mrs. A. H. March of Butte, Montana, and Mrs. W. J. Sears of Brooklyn, N. Y.

Funeral services will be held at the late residence, 523 Seventeenth street, tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock.

BOOBY GAINED BY HARD LABOR IS COMFISCATED

Pigeon Thieves Caught by Officer With Birds.

(Special to The Tribune.)

SAN FRANCISCO, March 31.—After climbing over numerous fences and making their way by a circuitous route to the back yard of Bert Delaney, at 1231 Fifth avenue, Sunset district, at an early hour this morning, two burglars contented themselves with robbing the pigeon house, taking eleven of the birds and making their escape from the place. As soon as they reached the street, however, they were espied by Officer T. H. Cook, who became suspicious of them and ordered them to halt.

Instead of complying with his request, the men dropped the bundle which they had been carrying and set off in opposite directions. The policeman pursued one of them, who made in the direction of Golden Gate park, and thinking that he would lose his man in the darkness of the foliage, he fired two shots at him and succeeded in bringing him to a halt.

When he returned to the scene he found in the bundle ten pigeons, one of which was dead. The man, who gave his name as Edmund Kramer, was booked at the park police station for burglary.

Twice elected to the office of Justice of the Peace on the Republican ticket in Brooklyn township and at the present time incumbent, Judge William R. Geary has announced his candidacy for City Attorney of Oakland.

What is a Chickering Piano Actually Worth?

One way to gauge the value of Chickering Pianos is to consider what an enormous price they would bring if the factories stopped work and no more Chickering were ever to be made. They would be sought and cherished as the rare Cremona violins are today. They sell now for $500 upward; then they would be worth thousands, tens of thousands of dollars.

Another way is to consider what the result would be if Chickering Pianos COULD BE reduced a third. Practically there would be no other piano sold. One illustrates Chickering valuation in dollars and the other in popular esteem.

Neither of these conditions is among the possibilities, and Chickering prices do not reach either extreme—they are fixed by the equities of business, only a fair reward to the maker; greater value to the buyer.

$500 upward for the uprights or $750 upward for the grands is really below ACTUAL worth, if we compare their unapproachable musical qualities with any other piano, or if we consider their greater durability, or their cash value after years of service.

Your old piano may be exchanged for one of these wonderful instruments at a fair valuation and payments to suit your convenience arranged for the balance.

Hebrew and Dane Will Clash Tonight at Coliseum in Contest Where Each Man Believes His Style to Be Best.

General impression regarding the contest that Able would put up is that he would content himself with jabbing and running away, thus depending on his clean cut scoring to win for him the battle. Able's talk it would not seem that this is a bluff, as he has been heard to say he has announced that he intends to make a brave stand and try for a knock out. Nelson, of course, suggests that this is just what he hopes Able will do and his hope is rejuvenated condition he has in his hopes is finding a way to wear the clever featherweight champion down with his strong aggressive style of milling, as he did with Canole and many others. The betting on the contest is still reported at even although it is expected that the other of the men will take a lead before the time for entering the ring. It would indeed be an exceptional thing to have two fighters sell at even money for a week previous to a contest and then enter the ring at the same price.

Sullivan-Ketchel Match.

As announced exclusively in this paper Sunday morning, Jimmy Coffroth succeeded in signing Jack (Twin) Sullivan and Stanley Ketchel for a thirty-five round battle for his Mission Street arena, the men to meet at 156 pounds at 10 o'clock in the morning of the contest which is scheduled for Saturday, May 10.

Coffroth has been quietly working on this match for some time and it is his opinion that he has an excellent attraction in this contest. The middleweight championship looks to be on a fair road to him, as he has a chance to win the contest. Bill Papke, the winner of the Sullivan-Ketchel contest being the logical claimants for the honor.

PRESIDENT THOMAS H. WILLIAMS EXTENDS PRESENT RACE MEETING

The racing season of the New California Jockey Club at Williams park in Emeryville, has been extended until Saturday, June 6. This paper called the notice of the racing public to this fact weeks ago when its racing editor, Lee Demier, predicted that the meeting here would be extended.

The announcement of the extension of the meeting was officially made by President Thomas H. Williams yesterday on his return from a pleasure trip in Southern California.

The meeting will be extended five weeks, making 181 racing days for the season as against 187 last season.

The coming of the battleship fleet and the unflinching interest shown by the thousands of local devotees moved Mr. Williams to extend the meeting.

There is every reason to believe that the meeting will be conducted successfully to the very end. Measures will be taken to have the best class of horses obtainable compete until the very last day.

Whitely of New York City is acting as leader. Sunday morning and evening Dr. Hugh Walker of Los Angeles preached on what is regarded the keynote of the convention's work, viz. "The Disturbing Christ." The following day the delegates of the W. C. A. met in the auditorium and the Congregationalists, led by Miss Mary Page of Berkeley, meeting in the parlors, the Methodists, led by Beatrice French of San Jose, met in the dining room, and the Episcopalians, led by Miss Sadie Gilmore of San Jose, convened in the lower cliff room. There were small representations, also, from other denominations. The conference was in full swing Monday with Bible classes and mission study classes fully organized. Among the scheduled classes are "The Life of Christ," by Miss Mary Page of Berkeley, "The Acts of the Apostles," by Prof. Edward S. Carson of Colgate College, "The Earlier Prophets," by Rev. Henry K. Booth of Berkeley. The mission study classes are as follows: "China," taught by Miss Salisbury of Los Angeles; "India," taught by Miss Margaret Matthews of Berkeley; "The Kingdom of God," taught by Rev. Lapey McArthur, D. D., of Berkeley; "The Challenge of the City," taught by Miss Beatrice French of San Jose. Prominent Speakers Present.

Among the speakers of the conference are Rev. Thomas R. Brown, D. D., of Oakland; Rev. Henry Kinkaid of Holy Cross College; Rev. William T. Watson of the National Board of Y. M. C. A.; Miss Caroline Now and Miss Elizabeth Hahls. Miss Abby McElroy, territorial secretary, has charge of the city association luncheon. Dr. L. L. Hictor of Berkeley, the conference physician, is being assisted by Miss Edna Nease of Berkeley, a trained nurse. Miss Laura C. Bailey of San Jose has been elected to take charge of association day. Miss Mary Louise Squire of Visalia is managing the convention and is assisted by Miss Catherine Barnes of Oakland. Miss Shirley Hyatt, daughter of Edward Hyatt, State Superintendent of Schools, is acting as hotel manager, and is being assisted by Miss Helen Thompson. Three Indian girls from Sherman Institute, chaperoned by Miss Wentworth, are present with an exhibit of their handicraft.

At 3:30 p. m. a reception for all the delegates was held in the rotunda, the hostesses being the Oakland girls. Large delegations are expected from Berkeley Wednesday. The convention will continue through the week.

DECIDE YOURSELF

The Opportunity Is Here, Backed by Oakland Testimony.

Don't take our word for it.
Don't depend on a stranger's statement.
Read Oakland endorsement.
Read the statements of Oakland citizens.
And decide for yourself.

Here is one case of it:
Mrs. H. Giacomo, living at 789 Market street, Oakland, Cal., says: "I do not know what I would have done had it not been for Doan's Kidney Pills. At the time I began their use I was suffering from pains and a weakness in the small of my back and felt generally miserable. Doan's Kidney Pills were brought to my attention, and I procured a box. It was only a short time before I was entirely cured. Previous to using them I was subject to a disordered condition of the kidneys and these organs have not regained their proper condition and I am glad to say that Doan's Kidney Pills have completely cured me."

For Sale by all Dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, Sole Agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Consult Experienced Opticians

Incorrectly prescribed glasses increase eyestrain, deform eyes, and make of your later years a time of permanent dimmed vision. Such glasses are common enough, but are eye-destroyers and the product of inexperienced opticians.

On the other hand, correctly made glasses save the eyes from strain, increase their usefulness, and for you, if you wear them, the day of dimmed vision may never arrive. Such glasses are eye-builders and are the product of experienced opticians.

We make our glasses in our own factory, our opticians are able, educated and most important of all, experienced. Their glasses are eye-builders. Examinations free.

Dangers of Defective Plumbing.

Defective plumbing permits the entrance into the house of sewer gas bearing germs of contagious diseases to which the human system readily succumbs.

Sewer gas is not necessarily generated in the sewer, but is frequently created in the plumbing system within the home and enters the apartments through defective fixtures.

If in doubt, consult us regarding the piping and replacing defective fixtures with "Standard" Porcelain Enamelled Ware—acknowledged as the best sanitary equipment.
